- Bennett tweeted on Sunday she wishes there had been 'no discovery'

A student who apparently spent the night with Olympic legend Usain Bolt after he celebrated his 30th birthday says she is ‘dying of shame’ after photos emerged of her encounter.

Jady Duarte, 20, posted WhatsApp pictures that appear to show her kissing and cuddling the sprint king Bolt - who has a long-term girlfriend.

In one of the photos - which first appeared on several Brazilian websites including Globo after Duarte shared them with friends - Bolt seems to give Duarte a kiss on the cheek while she looks into the camera.

The Jamaican sprinter, who turned 30 on Sunday, was also pictured partying until the early hours of Sunday morning at All In, a club in the Barra de Tijuca suburb of Rio.
Jady Duarte, from Rio, shared WhatsApp pictures that show her wearing a white top while embracing a bare-torsoed Bolt (pictured) – who has a long-term girlfriend.

The DailyMail.com has reached out to Bolt's agents for comment.

It was a wild end to the sprinter's third and apparently final Olympics where he won another three gold medals, cementing his legacy as one of the greatest sprinters of all time.

In typical fashion, the flamboyant runner took to the stage at the De Bracos Albertas club - delighting revellers and fans in the process.

Bolt, who has a girlfriend of two years at home in Jamaica who he calls his 'First Lady', also attracted the attention of Duarte, who shared photos of herself in bed with the superstar on WhatsApp early Sunday morning.

The intimate photos show the star curled with the student at 7am local time.

Speaking to local newspaper Extra, Duarte said that the impact of the pictures had left her mortified.

She explains: 'It's very negative. I never wanted to be famous, I'm dying of shame.'

Duarte did not reveal what happened next - other than to say: 'It was not a big deal. It was normal.

'I'd rather not talk about it - in order not to complicate matters.

'Like I said, it was normal.'

Bolt was seen dancing and twerking with another girl as he partied at a Rio night club on Sunday (pictured) during his last night in Brazil

Local newspaper Extra also said she claimed to have no idea who Bolt was.

Duarte says she was at the club All In in Barra in the West Zone of Rio, with friends when 'Bolt spotted her'. She said: 'He sent a security guard to call me over. We spoke quickly.

'But at that moment I didn't know it was him, because there were many Jamaicans who looked similar.'

Duarte wasn't the only woman to catch Bolt's eye on Saturday night - a video posted to Twitter showed him twerking enthusiastically with another local girl during his evening out.

He sang and danced just hours after earning three Olympic gold medals. Bolt thus completed a triple triple, as he also won the 100 meters, the 200 meters and the 4x100-meter relay in 2008 in Beijing and 2012 in London.

Meanwhile his sister had just revealed that Bolt had a long-term girlfriend - 26-year-old Kasi Bennett.

Bolt and Bennett have been dating for more than two years and were likely to get engaged soon, according to Christine Bolt-Hylton.

But Bennett shared a cryptic tweet on Sunday. Someone commented on the world 'discovering' Bolt's girlfriend, saying Bennett was 'hot'.

Bennett replied: 'I wish there was no discovery, but thank you so much. That's really sweet of you.'

Bolt made an early exit from Rio Sunday night - departing a day earlier than planned and missing the Closing Ceremony entirely.

The Jamaican sprinter was seen heading for the departure lounge at Rio's Galeo International Airport an hour before the event got underway at 8pm local time on Sunday.
His last tweet before departing Rio read in Portuguese: ‘we came, we saw, we conquered. Rio I have endless love for you.’

Bolt had also been expected to attend a party in his honor at the Jamaica hospitality house but the event was canceled due to bad weather, with an apologetic note left pinned to the railings outside.

The early departure of the 30-year-old means the Games concluded with almost no big name stars in attendance, with Michael Phelps and Sir Bradley Wiggins already back on home soil.

Bolt is flying home to a hero's welcome in Kingston - and has had a reggae song called ‘Bolt the Champion’ composed in his honour.

Meanwhile Bolt's sister had just revealed that Bolt had a long-term girlfriend, 26-year-old Kasi Bennett (pictured with him). She said the pair were likely to get engaged soon.

For his third and apparently final Olympics, Bolt (pictured leaving Rio on Sunday) won another three gold medals, cementing his legacy as one of the greatest sprinters of all time.

The sprinter, who will now retire from Olympic competition following the Games, is expected to take on an ambassadorial role in athletics and has also signed a lifetime contract with Nike thought to be worth an estimated $30m a year.

However, the Jamaican champ has had no special treatment during the Rio Games, sharing a room in an Athlete's Village with team mate Asafa Powell for most of the event.

Prior to the Opening Ceremony, he and his Jamaica team mates were put up in a low-cost hotel close to Galeo International airport, where rooms go for as little as $136 a night.

The only luxury at the Linx Hotel was the services of a Jamaican chef, flown in especially to provide the Olympic star and his team mates with food fit for champions.
